

Quiz: What Is Your Job Search Style

Instructions: For each question, choose the response that most closely aligns with your natural tendencies and preferences.

1. What is your initial instinct when approaching a new job search?

A. I like to dive in immediately, applying to multiple positions and exploring various opportunities

B. I prefer to plan and strategize before taking action, understanding my long-term goals first.

C. Networking is a top priority for me; I enjoy building connections and learning from others.

D. I look for innovative ways to stand out in the job market and showcase my unique skills.

E. I prefer a systematic and organized approach, breaking down tasks into manageable steps.

2. How do you feel about networking events or professional meetups?

A. Excited! I enjoy meeting new people and making connections.

B. I see them as opportunities to strategically expand my network and gather valuable insights.

C. Networking is a natural part of my routine; I thrive on building relationships.

D. I approach them with creativity, looking for ways to make a memorable impression.

E. I attend with a purpose, focusing on targeted interactions and information gathering.

3. What best describes your approach to crafting a resume or job application responses?

A. I customize resumes for each job application, showcasing a variety of skills.

B. I meticulously tailor my resume to align with specific job requirements.

C. I highlight my interpersonal and teamwork skills, emphasizing collaboration.

D. I use a creative format to make my resume stand out visually.

E. I follow a structured and organized format, emphasizing clarity and professionalism.

4. How do you handle challenges or setbacks during the job search process?

A. I quickly adapt and move on to the next opportunity.

B. I reflect on what went wrong and adjust my strategy accordingly.

C. I reach out to my network for support and advice.

D. I view challenges as opportunities to showcase my resilience and creativity.

E. I systematically analyze the situation and adjust my plan accordingly.

5. What motivates you during the job search process?

A. The thrill of exploring different opportunities and possibilities.

B. Achieving long-term career goals and milestones.

C. Building meaningful connections and relationships.

D. Showcasing my unique skills and standing out from the crowd.

E. The satisfaction of following a well-organized and structured plan.

Scoring Your Results

Count the number of times you selected each letter.
The letter most frequently selected represents your dominant job search strategy type.

A: _____

B: _____

C: _____

D: _____

E: _____

Next: Access your free guide that briefly describes your strategy type, pitfalls to avoid, and how to leverage your strategy strengths during your transition.